resposibility of the Press Information Bureau, a centralised institution, which is manned by specialists from the Indian Information Service. The Public Relations Wing of the Ministries/Departments including Defence are headed by a PIB officer. At the same time, the Directorate of Public Relations of the Ministry of Defence also has officers from all the three defence Services. There is good mix of media and Service professionals with a view to projecting the defence services.

(b) and (c) At present only 3 of the 36 sanctioned posts of Public Relations Officers in the Ministry of Defence are lying vacant. Two of these posts fell vacant in November 93 upon premature retirement/transfer of the incumbents. The third post fell vacant on 21st October, 93 for similar reasons. Efforts are being made to fill these vacancies at the earliest.

Revamping of the public relations set up for the defence services is an ongoing process and is carried out as and when required.

(c) whether a committee has been constituted to determine the lapses on the part of Defence Estate Office to prevent mauthorised constructions or encroachments in Kanpur Cantonment area; and

(d) if so, by when the committee is likely to submit its report?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF DEFENCE (SHRI MALLIKARJUN) : (a) to (d) Audit Authorities have not pointed out any major financial lapse except some minor objections/observations of procedural nature committed by the Cantonment Boards, Kanpur and Lucknow during the last 3 years, and have certified that the accounts are maintained by these Cantonment Boards satisfactorily.

2. As regards encroachments on properties under old grants/or normal leases, Bungalow No. 1, Nehru Road, Lucknow covering an area of 10.85 acres which was held on old grant by Shri Ram Das was transferred to Shri Thakurji Maharaj through a registered Will and a trust was created to look after the property. On this Bungalow which was partly under the notified civil area and partly outside the civil area, 183 houses/huts came up during the past some time. The matter was considered by the Government in 1986 and it was decided to allow the holder of occupancy right (HOR) to convert an area of 6.41 acres under Survey No. 16 under the management of Defence Estates Officer (DEO) into free hold to enable the HOR to construct pucca houses. No such case has been reported in Kanpur Cantonment.

No Committee has been constituted to determine the lapses on the part of Defence Estates Officer to prevent unauthorised constructions or encroachments in Kanpur Cantonment.
